Some feedback from our clients!

1

“Outbound email has been pivotal in reducing our overall marketing costs and Customer Acquisition Costs as it is such a cost-effective channel”

Patrick Maloney, Email Marketing Specialist, Highfive

2

“One thing that I value a lot and I think that many DIY software companies undervalue, is the importance of the client onboarding. Thanks to the swift and proactive onboarding by the Growbots team, we were able to get all the tips and tricks to use the platform in the best way from day one. “

Martin Garbarczyk, Co-Founder, Relatable

3

“We managed to cut the time spent on generating leads from full-time, four days per week to 30 minutes per day.”

Cameron Chiechi Growth Specialist at Readz

Our ideal customers

Growbots is a solution for B2B clients

Our typical customers are small to medium sized companies operating in the tech, software, marketing or digital spheres, but.....the sky's the limit

You can refer different types of businesses with a relatively wide target

Our email automation tool is designed for sales outreach only - not marketing newsletters
